

Our Amazing 2nd Grade Summer Reading List 2023

The book all rising 2nd grade students are required to read this summer is I'm a Saint in the Making by Lisa M. Hendey. We feel that it is a great story that our students will enjoy. This book is especially timely as 2nd grade is such an important year with our Catholic students receiving the sacraments of Reconciliation and First Holy Communion.

We hope that I'm a Saint in the Making is just the tip of the iceberg when it comes to your summer reading. Below are a list of books and series that we think students will really enjoy and will grow their love of reading and learning through the summer. Students are asked to read at least two books from those listed below. Students are not required to keep a reading log.
